OUR MILITARY BUDGET.

THE SITUATION.

No information has been received here indicating that the two hostile armies upon the Rappahannock have come into collision again: that is, since Saturday last. It turns out that the importance of the cavalry fight of that day this side of the river has been greatly mag-

Col. Sothoron, of St. Mary's county, Md., and his son, who murdered Lt. Eben White, of the 7th U.S. colored regiment, have succeeded in escaping across the Potomac into Virginia. The female members of the family have certainly gone off thither within the last few days. The estate they have thus abandoned to the United States is large and valuable, and we presume will be used to some extent to indemnify the family of the murdered officer. The Louisville Journal of Oct. 22d says:

"We are able to state on assurances which we deem entirely trustworthy, that the Government will not authorize the enlistment of negroes in Kentucky."

THE PROPLE OF RICHMOND DEEM IT IN-ADVISABLE TO PLACE RESTRICTION ON PRICES.

GOLD SENT TO FEDERAL PRISONERS TO BE GIVEN THEM-TREASURY NOTES TO BE RETAINED.

PEOPLE WHO HAVE FURNISHED SUBSTI-TUTES GETTING SCARED.

FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 26 .- The Richmond Sentinel of the 23d says "the people of Richmend decided yesterday by a large ratio of the vote given-867 to 296-that they deem it inadvisable to place any restrictions on prices; and the Virginia Senate decided that there should be none. The proposition is now dead. We submit to this decision with cherfulness, aithough we believe it to be a great mistake."

An order has been issued from the War Department to Gen. Winder, who is in charge of priseners of war Richmond, instructing him to deliver to the Federal prisoners in his charge all the gold sent to them by their friends from the North, as he may receive it. But to withhold from them all United States Treasury notes, as the Confederate Government recognises no such money; but he may give them an equivalent in Confederate scrip.

"It is stated that some who have put substitates in the army, and stayed at home to make money, are alarmed at the prospect of the repeal of the substitute law, and having made where withall to travel, are trying to run away to Europe. We understand that numerours applications have been made for passports. None probably, of them will be granted."

THE REBRLS SCARED.

DESPERATE RESORTS OF THE CONFEDS TO MAKE A SHOW OF A LARGE FORCE FOR DEFENCE.

FORTRESS MONEOE, Oct 26 .- A lady, the wife of an officer in the Southern army, recently arrived in Norfolk, who says she is from Mobile, Alabama; that that city is threatened by the Federal troops, they being near enough to watch the movements of the Confederate force in that city. T

The inhabitants think the city will soon fall into the hands of the Federals, as the "Confeds" have but few available troops there, and are resorting to deceptive means to keep up the appearance of a larger force than they really have. Even women dress up in men's clothes and parade the outskirts of the city as soldiers. If the city is attacked, no resistance will be shown by their present force.

A body of their infantry has been discovered this side of the river at Sulphur Springs. Their cavalry pickets are thrown out this side of the Rappahannock and are in sight of our advance pickets.

There has been considerable change of position of several corps of our army during the past few days, designed, however, to protect the operations of those engaged in reconstructing the railroad rather than for offensive purposes. There are no indications of any immediate advance movement.

Sunday night they attacked the mail wagons en route to Warrenton, near New Baltimore, wounded the driver and took him prisoner, and escaped with the horses and harnesses. Fortunately there was no mail on the wagon. Hereafter trains and mails will be accompanied by a guard.

Work on the railroad is being prosecuted vigorously, the advance of the army being dependent upon its completion.

General Meade's headquarters are still at Warrenton.

From the Richmond Enquirer of the 24th, we take the following: Information of an official character was re-

Steps have doubtless been taken to meet and repel the danger. We have no report of the number of the enemy nor of the route of their advance. From the Kanawha Valley.

We learn from the Lynchburg Republican of Thursday that there is now but a very small number of Yankees in the Kanawha Valley.

Gen. Scammon, the commander, having gone with the larger portion to Tennessee, either to reinforce Burnside or Rosecrans. The force now in the valley consists of four regiments now in the valley consists of four regiments and one battery. A portion are at Fayetteville and the rest scattered at different points along the river. There are no cavalry in the valley. A little dash and enterprise on the part of our forces in the valley could clear it of the enemy. The Examiner, in a leader, notices the recent elections in Pennsylvania and Ohio, and says: We have demonstrated that amongst our Yankes enemies there was no difference to us; that the Democrate were equally our enemies with the Republicans; that the Copperhead movement with all its Knights of the Golden Circle was merely a contrivance for bringing back the Democratic party into power, and that immediately on that happy event the Peace Democrats would be all war Democrats.

Several shots were fired at them, but with what effect is not known.

The Augusta (Ga.) Sentinel says the enemy seem to be as well posted on the movements of the military—we will not say as the citizens of the Confederate States, for their knowledge is very imperfect—but as the authorities who themselves give direction to the movements, asks who is to blame? answere it by saying that the information !; derived from parties seaving Richmond for the North, and calls upon the Government to be more careful how they issue permits.

The Recent Virginia Campaign.

A correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer writing from Bristow Station, October 15, says: It is certainly true that Meade has managed his retreat most orderly, and that he has saved his stores, and lost but few men. Though I think it equally true that the Yankee army is considerably scared. And it is a fact that Birney did not sleep a wink Tuesday night, while encamped at Greenwich, in Prince William county, but paced the floor of the house in which his headquarters were almost incesrantly, repeatedly consulting his watch and sending couriers to the pickets to know if they saw any rebels. There has been heavy firing all day to-day, and even into night, some distance below; but at this writing I have not learned the nature of it, though it is supposed to be an engagemen between some portions of our cavalry and the

Our boys have been sadly disappointed in their expectations of captures, and from more than one of them you can hear such an expression as this:-" If Jackson had been along we would have gotten everything we wanted. Alas! we have no Jackson now." Our boys, however, make the Yankees whom they capture pull off their shoes, which they at once convert to their own use. Rebel Reports from Chattanooga.

The army correspondent of the Savannah Republican says that the Confederate batteries on Lookout Mountain do not command Rosecrans's works, as has been stated and believed. This fact was abundantly demonstrated a few days ago when an effort was made to shell the enemy's lines. Neither our splendid 20-pounder Parrotts nor our best 21pounder rifled guns produced any appreciable result so far as could be discovered, owing to the distance at which they were fired. If Bragg were provided with siege guns of the requisit calibre he might drive the enemy out of Chattanooga; field artillery is unsuited for such work. Even the latter might be moved forward in the plain that spreads out before the town, and brought within easy range; but in that event the ground would be in favor of Rosecrans, whose forts and batteries crown every eminence within the limits of the town and its immediate vicinity. It is estimated to be two miles from the base of Missionary Ridge and the side of Lookout Mountain, where our batteries are placed, to the enemy's main works. Our Par rott gans will carry that distance, but not with sufficient accuracy to accomplish much.

The Memphis (Atlanta) Appeal of the 14th inst., says: Beyond the fact that an important movement of the army of Tennessee was evidently about to be made, we have been unable to learn anything from the latest passenger arrivals from above. That a programme had been decided upon, and would be at once put on foot, is the concurrent testimony of all, but in what direction no inkling could be obtained. The troops seemed overjoyed at the prospect of being early put to work.

We have no idea that an attack upon Rosecrans in his works at Chattanoog. was contemplated, as it has been for some days conceded that the attempt, no matter how formidable i might be made, would be akin to madness. The hour when it might have been successfully done has passed. Strategy, however, may accomplish the work, and what course will be adopted can only be conjectured. Orders were received in the city yesterday to allow no passenger travel on the Chattanooga road until further notice. This is significant. Negro Insurrection in Georgia. The Milledgeville (Ga.) Recorder says:— Eighteen negroes have been lodged in Sparta jail, Hancock county, for combining and attempting to excite insurrection. They had been holding secret meetings and planning matters. In all about one hundred in number are implicated. All the ringleaders have been arrested. Their operations have been extensive

A correspondent of the Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer says that the official report of the Rebel loss in killed, wounded, and missing in the late battle of Chicksmanga amounts to 17,999.

REBRIS EXPECTED TO MAKE RESISTANCE AT TUSCUMBIA. CAIRO, Oct. 27 .- The Memphis Bulletin of the 24th says :- On the 21st the Union forces eastward from Corintir met with resistance at Cherokee Station, eighty-nine miles from Tuscumbia. General Osterhaus, who was on the advancehad not moved far when he encountered two brigades of rebel cavaly, under Generals Lee and Forrest, estimated at from four to six thousand. The fight lasted an hour, when the rebels were driven back with severe loss. Our loss was seven killed and thirty-seven wounded. The rebels are said to have very strong fortifications one mile this side of Tuscumbia on the railroad.

Prisoners report the enemy expect to make a stout resistance there. They say they had 4,000 men there on Tuesday, and received reinforcements of 1,000 cavaly. On Wednesday 2,000 more were expected from Brazo.

The steamer Mist, from Helena to Memphis, while loading on the Mississippi side of the while loading on the Mississippi side of the river fifteen miles above Helens, on the riet instant was boarded by ten or fifteen guerillas, who robbed the boat of $30,000 and other valuables and then fired the boat, which pass censured with a number of halor of cotton.

One of the party was abot, and above others captured in the vicinity the next day. The boat was evened at Paducah, and cost $40,000. The new trade regulations went tare operation at Memphis today. Reports from New Oritans show the receipt and nearly $1000 bales of cotton in one day. LOCAL NEWS.
